Dewey, Ike See Alike On Russia

General in Agreement With Firmness in Berlin; Thinks War Can Be Avoided

To See Vandenberg

G.O.P. Candidate Is Sure Excess Grain Means More Meat

Pawling, N. Y., July 23 (AP)—With Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower agreeing with him on a policy of "absolute firmness" toward Russia in the Berlin crisis, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey looked to Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg today for an up-to-the-minute report on the situation.

The Republican presidential nominee will have a dinner conference tonight at his farm with Vandenberg, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. John Foster Dulles, Dewey's chief lieutenant in international affairs, will attend.

Meanwhile Dewey played host today to 75 farm editors. He told them in a prepared address at a luncheon in Pawling Grange Hall that the decline in livestock and poultry could be reversed to some extent by intelligent use of the "sharp increase" in available grain.

Three-Hour Conference

The governor said yesterday after a three-hour conference here with Eisenhower that he and the general were in agreement that the United States "must stand with absolute firmness in Berlin."

They agreed also, Dewey said, that the United States must "neglect no avenues to the finding of a peaceable solution" of the problems that have arisen in connection with the Berlin blockade and the future of Germany.

Eisenhower, who participated in the news conference, was asked by a reporter whether he thought a peaceable solution of the Berlin deadlock could be found. He replied:

"I do certainly I believe no one in the world is mad enough at this time to seek a solution through force of arms.

"We found ourselves in agreement that in a place as critical as this, the United States has to be firm. If it knows its moral position is correct and that position is in conformity with solemn agreements, it cannot properly in this day and time back up from it."

The general, who rejected many overtures from both Republicans and Democratic groups to head the national ticket this year, said his presence at Pawling did not mean he would support Dewey for the presidency.

Talked as Americans

"I have not identified myself with any political party," he said. "I think I reflect the governor's views when I say we talked as two Americans."

Pressed as to whether his statement meant he was not endorsing Dewey, the general, now president of Columbia University, said:

"It means that I am interested in seeing and talking to anybody who has the welfare of this country at heart. Frankly, I was anxious to accept his invitation to come up here and talk with him.

"Let us not fool ourselves. Governor Dewey is a very significant person in the body politic."

Dewey said he and Eisenhower examined the European situation generally.

"The whole problem of a European military and economic union was discussed," Dewey said. "It is a subject on which General Eisenhower has strong views and are in accord with those I have expressed in many speeches."

Dewey favors a United States of Europe.

Talks Food Shortages

Dewey told the farm editors, assembled here from many sections of the country to discuss an agricultural program, that "we have seen a serious decline in the livestock and poultry production of the nation."

He said this had resulted in a

Mackey Hurts Shoulder As Car Upsets in Park

Cleon Mackey, 34, of 482 Broadway suffered a fractured left shoulder and a cut on his head when his automobile overturned at Hasbrouck Park about 4 a. m., the police reported. He was admitted to Kingston Hospital where his condition was reported to be good.

Mackey reported the incident to Patrolmen Edward Leonard and George Bowers, who were investigating a report of noises heard at the park. Mackey said he had driven his car to the highest point on the road in the park, and on his descent he lost control of the automobile, which rolled over the embankment about one-half way down the hill and came to rest on its top. The car was considerably damaged, police said.

Assessment Rolls For Grievance Day Ready at City Hall

The new assessment rolls have been completed and are open to public inspection at the office of the city assessor in the city hall. The new rolls, on which will be based the 1949 general taxes, contain an across-the-board 33 1/3 per cent increase on all properties, as previously directed by Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk.

Although City Assessor Winfield Swart said today that the exact total increase in assessments has not been computed as yet, it is expected to amount to about $8,150,860, which is one-third of the assessed valuation of $24,477,060 reported on January 1, 1948. This will bring the new total assessed valuation in Kingston to approximately $32,627,920.

The new roll will be open for inspection until August 10, which is grievance day.

Feared War, Suicides

Bloomingdale, N. J., July 24 (AP)—A 17-year-old New York youth, fearful that the United States is heading for war, killed himself with a .22 caliber rifle at a nearby summer home, State Trooper Paul Rohr said yesterday. Dr. George W. Surgent, Passaic county medical examiner, issued a certificate of suicide by gunshot. The boy shot himself through the heart, Surgent said. State Troopers Rohr and James Roseberry said the youth, William Fischer, 17, of 6344 Forest avenue, Ridgewood, section of Brooklyn, was found dead on an army cot in the summer home by his sister, Helen, 15, about midnight.

Shoot to Sink Order

Jersey City, N. J., July 24 (AP)—A Russian freighter was alongside a pier here today, after an argument about rats delayed its docking for more than nine hours. The health inspectors and the ship's argument—between U. S. public captain, Nikolay Pokholok—reached a climax when a customs officer shouted to a Coast Guard cutter: "Shoot to sink if she moves fore or aft."

Sorry His Chain-Murder Partner Is Dead and Didn't Have Chance To Shoot It Out

Celina, O., July 24 (AP)—An unrepentant youth sat unconcernedly in a heavily-guarded jail cell here today, glibly admitting participation in six cold-blooded murders in 14 days.

Good-looking, nattily-dressed Robert "Murli" Daniels, 22, said he had only two regrets. He was sorry his chain-murder partner, John C. West, 22, was dead, slain by police. And he was sorry he hadn't had a chance to shoot it out with authorities.

Sheriff F. Ray Shaffer of Van Wert county captured Daniels without a struggle yesterday near Van Wert, O., as he slept in a new car atop the automobile-hauling truck the gunmen stole in an attempt to elude a gigantic road block.

West, the bespectacled triggerman, received a bullet between the eyes in a wild gun battle in which two officers were wounded, one critically.

While Shaffer was arresting Daniels, West jumped out of the driver's seat of the truck, crouched behind the steel door and blazed away with an automatic pistol at Sgt. L. D. Conn of the Van Wert police, who was aiding Shaffer in a road block.

Conn was wounded, but continued to fire with a sub-machine gun, killing West. Frank Freimoth, Van Wert county game protector, had rushed to help—although unarmed. He was hit in the right shoulder before Shaffer could throw him a rifle.

Conn, shot in the lungs, rallied after an operation last night in Van Wert Hospital and was reported "considerably improved" today.

"If I hadn't been caught sleeping," Daniels snarled from his jail cell, "I'd have killed all those cops."

Daniels was transferred to the modern jail here last night from Van Wert. Sumner Walters, assistant prosecutor of Van Wert

Firemen Will Hold Field Day for Children August 4

Wednesday, August 4, has been announced as the date of the field day for children of the city to be held at the municipal stadium under the sponsorship of the Uniformed Firemen's Association, Local 461.

Events will begin at 10 a. m. and will continue until approximately 5 p. m. Soda and frankfurters will be distributed free by the firemen to all children who compete and all children who are spectators.

A number of valuable prizes are being purchased by the U.F.A. for distribution to the winners of the various events, and a trophy will be awarded to the winning park.

Among the prizes are two bicycles, one each to be awarded to the best all-around boy and girl athlete in the competition, based on points earned and sportsmanship.

This field day, as well as a recent trip to the circus sponsored by the firemen for children of the city children's home and from St. Anne's Convent, is a part of the U. F. A.'s program for children made possible from the proceeds of the first annual Firemen's Ball held last March 17. According to Robert Hardwick, secretary of the U. F. A., much of the credit for the field day belongs to the merchants and individuals who supported the ball.

The competition is open to all boys and girls 18 years old and under, excepting members of the Kingston High School track squad and members of families of the firemen. Events are planned in four groups: boys 13 to 18 years old, inclusive; boys 12 years old and under; girls 13 to 18, and girls 12 and under.

The entire program of events have been planned by and will be conducted under the supervision of Andrew J. Murphy, superintendent of recreation.

Each of the seven city parks will be allowed three representatives in each event, and there will be a total of 20 events. Park eliminations, where necessary, will be run off next week.

Children wishing to enter any of the events, which include running, relays, football passing, and other events for boys and a 50-yard dash, Yale lock race and rolling pin throw for girls, may apply to their nearest park supervisor. Selection of the finalists will be made at the parks by Ed McCardle, track and field supervisor.

Every entrant will be given an appropriate T-shirt by the firemen. These will be distributed on Tuesday, August 3, at the Central, Cornell and Wiltwyck fire stations. U.F.A. officials expect about 400 boys and girls will participate.

Gen. Clay Says Plan to Double Supplies To Blockaded Berlin Gives Russians Evidence Americans Are There to Stay

American Commander Announces Plan to Boost Food and Fuel Shipments

New Currency

Russia to Issue New Permanent Money for Berlin

BY ELTON C. FAY

Washington, July 24 (AP)—A plan to double the supplies being flown to Soviet-blockaded Berlin gave Russia today—in the words of Gen. Lucius D. Clay—"pretty good evidence" that Americans will refuse to be chased from the German capital.

The American commander in Germany announced the plan to boost food and fuel shipments at a news conference yesterday, following two days of talks with the highest U. S. policy-making officials, including President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall.

Clay's departure for Berlin to start putting the plan into operation coincided almost exactly with the departure of Charles E. Bohlen, State Department counsellor, for London to confer with U. S. Ambassador Lewis Douglas.

Bohlen and Douglas were expected to discuss drafting of a new note to Russia protesting the tight blockade imposed on all surface transportation between western-occupied Berlin areas and the occupied zones of western Germany.

In Moscow, it was learned American Ambassador Walter B. Smith plans to take part in the London discussions.

Clay subscribed heartily to President Truman's assertion that the chances for peace are excellent. While he explained that he didn't want to minimize "the seriousness of the situation" in Germany, Clay declared:

"I don't think there is anybody in this world that is out looking for war at this moment, and if the people and the countries involved don't want war it looks to me like we have an excellent chance of finding a solution which is peaceful."

Asked "do you include the Russians in that?" Clay responded: "I do indeed. I don't think they want war."

To the question, "you don't think this maneuver is pushing for a showdown?" the general gave the answer: "Very obviously when we get a situation of this sort, you have a situation in which hot heads and foolish hands could create a war. I don't believe that is going to happen."

Clay also was asked if any high ranking military authority—including himself—advocated an attempt to force an armed train or convoy through the blockade.

"I will give you my answer to that very simply," he said. "As a soldier it is not my job in Germany to carry us into war. It is my job in Germany not to carry us into war. That is a decision that will be made by the government if it is ever made and not by us in Germany."

Doesn't Expect War

Clay made plain that while he neither wants or expects war, the United States firmly intends to main in Berlin, despite Russian efforts to starve the western powers out of their sectors of the city. He said the expanded air lift of supplies can be carried on "indefinitely."

A "large" number of C-54 transports will be added to the shuttle service. This, with British air-force operations, will increase the daily tonnage flown into the city from the present 2,000 tons to 4,500 tons. Some 54 four-engine C-54's and 96 twin-engine C-47's now are being used by the United States for the job.

Traffic jams at Templehof Airdrome, currently a bottleneck in the air supply system, will be relieved by construction of a new U. S. air field. This will make possible "a great deal more tonnage" than even the present 4,500-ton goal.

Clay said no additional troops are needed in Berlin. Asked if they are needed in Europe, he replied: "Not for this situation, no." He said the plans set forth by Army Chief of Staff Omar Bradley last spring still hold good. At that time Bradley said the 96,000 American troops in Europe would be reduced to 93,000.

Permanent Money

Berlin, July 24 (AP)—Russia acted today to issue a new permanent money for eastern Germany and Berlin. And she repeated her claims that Berlin is economically part of the Soviet zone.

Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Russian commander in Germany, decreed issuance of the new currency last night. It will replace

Volunteers Elect Finch As County President

R. A. Snyder, Retiring, Asks for Full Support of New Leader; Bruhn Makes Plea for Action Against 'the Red Fire of Communism'

Morton Finch, a member of the A. H. Wicks Engine Company No. 4 of this city, was elected president of the Ulster County Firemen's Association for 1948-49 and Kingston was designated the convention city for 1949. This action was taken by delegates to the Ulster County Firemen's Convention at their business session in Saugerties Friday night.

Finch, who lives at 177 Ten Broeck avenue in this city, was placed in nomination by other members of the Wicks company, who pointed out that he served diligently on the committee which was instrumental in obtaining the new pumper for that company. He is also a veteran of World War 1 and an active member of the American Legion.

Other Officers

Other officers elected were Ralph Lyons of Highland Hose Company, as first vice-president, and Edward Chase of Napanoch as second vice-president. Chase was proposed as a representative of the entire town of Wawarsing, including the villages of Kerhonkson, Napanoch and Ellenville.

Fred C. Harder of Kingston was re-elected secretary and Henry DuBois of New Paltz was re-elected treasurer. Charles Turner of New Paltz was re-elected a member of the board of directors for a five-year term.

Robert A. Snyder of Saugerties, retiring president, was elected delegate to the New York State Volunteer Firemen's Convention to be held in Rome in August and George W. Gardner of the Lynch Hose Company, Saugerties, was elected as his alternate. All elections were unanimous.

When President Snyder presented the gavel to his successor, the members present paid tribute to Snyder as an active and efficient leader during the past year. John A. Heaney, chairman of the Red Hat Committee, presented the retiring president with a red fireman's hat signifying a past president.

Praises Support

In his remarks to the delegates, Snyder said, "I have enjoyed every minute of my tenure as your president. . . . I have been honored to head a group whose principals are the real basic underlying principles of Americanism—the willingness to help others without thought of personal gain." He asked the members to extend to his successor the same cooperation and friendly spirit of assistance which they had given him.

District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn was guest speaker. Voicing the opinion that perhaps the increase in crime in recent years has been the result of Communistic influence tending to instill a disrespect for law and order, Bruhn appealed to the volunteer firemen to help extinguish "the red fire of Communism."

Consider Children

He urged them to cooperate with the police departments; to provide a good home life for their children; to bring them up in the way of the church, regardless of their religion; and to see that their school teachers are paid adequate salaries and then to make certain that they teach the children the principles which will not undermine those established in America.

"So many people have acquired a complete disrespect for law and order and seem to feel there is only one crime, the so-called eleventh commandment: 'Thou shalt not get caught.' They seem to think that anything goes so long as you don't get caught.

"If such an attitude continues and grows, I'm afraid our jails are not going to be big enough to accommodate the offenders who

State Draft Head Asks For Experienced Men

Albany, N. Y., July 24 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Ames T. Brown looked today to experienced draftees of World War Two to man New York state's peacetime selective service boards.

Brown, State Selective Service director during the last war, got the job back yesterday. His appointment by President Truman followed Governor Dewey's recommendation. The 57-year-old veteran of the first world war has been New York's adjutant general for 10 years.

Brown immediately began listing possible nominees for the 77 local boards that will function at 64 sites upstate and on Long Island. He will submit a list to Dewey, who probably will turn the nominations over to President Truman next week.

Flier Who Bombed U.N. Headquarters Will Be Examined

Dropped Missile to Make Them Here and Abroad Look to U. N. for Lasting Peace

New Haven, Conn., July 24 (AP)—Stephen J. Supina, the ex-army flier who bombed United Nations headquarters because he said he wanted world peace, was placed under $50,000 bonds today pending a mental examination.

Arraigned in city court less than 24 hours after he calmly walked into the New Haven Register newsroom and surrendered, the 36-year-old flier heard his lawyer successfully plead that the case be put off until Monday.

Judge D. W. Celotto readily agreed to the continuance after Supina's lawyer, T. Emmet Clarie, said he wanted his client examined by a psychiatrist.

Said Clarie:

"It is obvious to any right thinking persons that this man's act was not that of a normal human being. It might well be that his war service has so affected him that he may be in need of medical attention."

Clarie told the court that Supina would not oppose extradition.

The Ashford, Conn., flier himself said yesterday when he gave himself up that he was anxious to go back to Lake Success to "finish my fight for world peace."

He told Register newsmen also that he didn't intend to hurt anyone when he dropped the missile Thursday, but did so "to make them here and abroad look to the United Nations for lasting peace."

Three Nassau county, N. Y., police officers were in city court when Supina was arraigned. Sergeant Arnold Smith said he had a warrant charging the flier with malicious mischief.

The tall, thin Supina, needing a shave and wearing a double-breasted gray flannel suit, sat silently with his lawyer throughout the brief proceedings.

Prosecutor Raymond J. Doyle told the court that the flier, arraigned on a charge of being a fugitive, had signed an extradition waiver. The prosecutor said, however, that he was agreeable to the postponement and would not object to a further delay beyond next Monday if more time were needed for the mental examination.

Claire told the court that it was likely that treatment might be sought in a veterans hospital for his client.

Relatives earlier had said Su-

Esopus Legion Post Takes Over New Home

Members of Town of Esopus Post, 1298, American Legion, have taken possession of their new Legion home on Emogene street in Port Ewen. The home was purchased four months ago but has been occupied by a tenant, who moved away Wednesday.

Since it was quite indefinite as to the exact date on which the home would be available, no formal plans have been made but meetings will now be held to formulate plans for the dedication.

At the present time, members of the post are invited and urged to visit the home any evening not only to inspect it, but also to assist in getting it in shape. Commander John A. Henry and a detail has been at the home every evening getting it in condition.

Wallace Accepts Progressive Party Nomination Tonight

His Supporters Declare U. S. Voters Now Will Have Choice Between 'Wallace and War'

Convention Hall, Philadelphia, July 24 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace today becomes the presidential candidate of the Progressive Party—and his supporters said U. S. voters have a choice between "Wallace and war."

With his acceptance speech tonight, the former vice president and cabinet member formally tosses his hat into 1948's biggest political race.

Wallace will be battling President Truman and Governor Thomas E. Dewey on a platform his keynote speaker told cheering, singing and booing delegates is "what the people demand, and what the people shall have."

Keynoter Charles P. Howard, Iowa negro editor, laid it on the line last night. He struck hard at both Republicans and Democrats, high prices, foreign policy, Congress, "Jim Crowism."

Urging America's "plain people" to join the fight against the old-line political parties, Howard said the choice was "Wallace or war."

And when Wallace accepts the Progressive Party banner tonight in Shibe Park, by his side will be Senator Glen Taylor, Idaho Democrat. Taylor left the ranks headed by President Truman to become the new party's number two

Pickells Plead Guilty to Auto Charge at Milton

New York, July 24 (Special)—Pleas of guilty were made after trial started in United States District Court here today by two boys, accused of having transported a stolen auto to Milton from Egg Harbor, N. J., on June 12.

John Hilly, assistant United States attorney, who is handling the case, said that the boys, Edward D. Pickell, 18, of Long Beach, Calif., and his brother, Jack Rex Pickell, 16, of Cleveland, Ohio, were arrested on June 13 by state police, when the car skidded on a wet portion of highway 9W, and smashed up.

The trial was held before Judge Samuel Kaufman and a jury. Sentencing was set for August 2.

Agree on Milk Price

New York, July 24 (AP)—State dairymen have reached an agreement fixing the prices of milk sold in the metropolitan area for the rest of this year, The New York Times said today. The action was taken, the paper said, at a conference between dairy groups and Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan in Washington yesterday. "Under terms of a plan approved by dairy leaders," The Times said, "an advance of one cent a quart will take effect on August 1, and another similar increase will follow on October 1."

Health Departments Urge All Dogs Be Vaccinated

Under the rabies control plan which was approved by the Board of Supervisors Thursday when $6,000 was made available to meet the cost of immunization clinics for dogs, it is not compulsory to have a dog vaccinated against rabies but this step is recommended by the State Health Department as well as the Ulster County Health Department.

The confinement of dogs during the duration of the quarantine however is mandatory and this applies whether the dog has been vaccinated or not until such time as the State Department modifies the order and permits dogs to again run at large.

Under the law there are two plans which may be adopted to control rabies. One is a compulsory vaccination of all dogs and the other is a "voluntary" immunization plan. It is the "voluntary" vaccination plan which was approved for Ulster county. Both plans provide that dogs during the continuance of the quarantine shall not be allowed to run at large and must be confined to the premises of the owner, or such other person as may give consent.

Clinics Start August 1

At the clinics which will be held beginning August first, dogs may be immunized at any of the clinics on a voluntary basis but should this plan not be sufficient to control the situation the compulsory plan may be later invoked.

Dr. George James, Commissioner of Health of Ulster county, states that it is not the desire of the local health department to impose the mandatory statute in regard to vaccination of dogs unless the situation becomes so serious that this step is necessary.

Dr. James expressed an opinion that the dog owners of the county would cooperate with the present plan to such an extent that it would not be necessary to put the more stringent provision into effect.

Cooperation Expected

"We will try the voluntary immunization plan first and I feel that the dog owners of the county owners of the county will cooperate to such an extent that we can control the present situation without more drastic action," Dr. James said. He pointed out that under the present plan dogs must not run at large, but must be confined to the premises of the owner until such time as at least 70 per cent of the dogs of the county have been immunized. The State Department may then alter the order regarding confinement of dogs and when this is done vaccinated dogs may again be permitted to run.

Meanwhile any one observing an animal acting strangely or observing a fox which appears to be affected with rabies should give immediate notice to the authorities.

Screens Must Fit

Window screens should be fitted before they are painted. If this is not done, it is often found that when the paint planes away through raising and lowering there will be sufficient space between the bottom of the screen and the sill to allow moisture to enter.

Old Central Entrance Effectively Employed

'The Lexington', Plan Offered Today, Takes Many Other Charming, Sensible Leaves from the Minuteman's Book

The Minutemen of Lexington were wise in many ways. For example, when they built a home they usually fashioned it with a central entrance opening into a hall running clear through the house. Rooms opened from this hall, at either side. In this manner they created living quarters allowing the greatest convenience in entertaining and in ease of keeping the house in order.

From the Minuteman's book, the "Home of the Week" Plan Service have borrowed the general ideas for the house design offered today. It is appropriately called "The Lexington." Not only does the plan employ the efficient centre style but it also includes other Colonial features—details as suited to 1948 as they were to the days of '76.

Big Bay Windows

Particularly lovely is the effect of the big bay windows which flank the pilastered Colonial door and light the living and dining rooms. These windows add warmth and softness to the interior. The architect has arranged window seats within these bays, but other treatments may suggest themselves to the homebuilder's imagination.

The house, as sketched, measures 23x30 feet; with a total cubage of 19,320 feet. The designers have held cubage to a minimum, thus bringing down construction costs.

If the building budget permits, a foot more added to the depth of the house would be well worth the added cost, giving a surprisingly large amount of additional space to the interior.

As pictured, the house would be best suited to a 60-foot front lot. However, on a smaller lot, the garage could be made a separate structure, located at the rear of the house. On a lot with a frontage greaterthan 60 feet, the arenway between house and garage could be widened, screened or glazed, and could then be utilized in many ways—as a breakfast room, hobby room or as a children's play room.

Painted Clapboards

For the exterior finish, painted clapboards are suggested in the lower portion of the house with the front elevation from second story window sills to eaves finished off in a contrasting material—stucco or painted plywood panelling. Painted shutters at the smaller windows and a colored roof or slate blend asphalt shingles, would contrast pleasantly with the white painted walls and white painted brick chimney.

For the simple Colonial doorway shown a more elaborate entrance with sidelights may be substituted. Various styles of doorways, reproductions of Colonial designs, are carried in stock by lumber dealers.

The Lexington has two entrances in addition to the central doorway. At the side of the house, leading into the kitchen, is a service entry, convenient to the door from the garage. At the rear of the house, another door swings into the central hall from a large terrace.

Hall Effectively Divided

Stepping through the front entrance, one notices that the hall, through it runs through the house, is effectively divided. A graceful Colonial stairway is located in the hall, while a large coat closet awaits guests' wraps at the far end of the hall. At the right of the hall two doors open into the spacious living room, where a Colonial fireplace occupies the centre of the longer outside wall. At the front of the house, the bay window admits a flood of light, while at the rear French doors open on the terrace.

The door to the basement stairs, and a downstairs lavatory, are located at the rear of the downstairs hall. Through the hall easy passage between kitchen and living room is possible.

Dining Room Walls

A swinging door from the kitchen opens into the dining room. Walls here could be finished with a low wainscot or with a simple chair rail. Hardwood floors, called for in the specifications, heres how their greatest beauty in the light from the bay window. A built-in Colonial china cupboard in one corner is possible and will still leave adequate wall space for other dining room furniture.

L-Shaped Upper Hall

On the second floor, The Lexington has an L-shaped hall with doors opening onto three bedrooms and a bath. The master bedroom is 11x14 feet in floor area, the other rooms 11x10.9. All three rooms have good closet facilities and windows on two sides provide cross lighting and ventilation.

In the hall, there is a linen closet and a large cedar closet. If desired, the latter could be eliminated and the space utilized for a sewing alcove.

For the bathroom, the architect suggests linoleum floor covering and walls finished with a dado of Keene cement, tinted with enamel.

Plans Available

Specifications and complete plans for "The Lexington, The "Home of the Week" or any design of this series may be obtained at moderate cost. Living-Dining Room Is the Modern Trend

The modern trend toward combined living-dining rooms is especially adaptable to small homes and can be carried out in a number of ways.

A dining alcove, fitted and furnished like the living room, added space and makes it actually a functional part of the living room except at meal times. Furniture in harmony with that of the living room should be used in the above. Drapes, on a traverse, can be used on the opening of the alcove if the home owner decides it is desirable to have the rooms disconnected during meal time.

Combining the dining room and living room is an excellent space saver in small homes, as the space needed for the dining alcove can be used to make the living room much larger. Owners of homes which have the disconnected rooms can combine them by removing the dividing wall.

Fire Damage Great From Poor Flues

The average annual fire loss in the United States due to defective chimneys and flues is above $25,000,000, and many lives are lost in the some 32,000 fires taking place in the country every year, according to an estimate.

There are eight common factors which contribute to faulty chimneys, according to some authorities: (1) Insufficient height, (2) omission of flue lining, (3) offsets and bends in the chimney, (4) improper installation of smoke pipe, (5) other openings into the chimney, (6) cover for clean-out door not tight, (7) improper support for chimneys, and (8) improper laying of brick.

Chimneys should be inspected at intervals by competent inspectors.

Need Increasing For Wiring Outlets

The current trend away from attached lighting fixtures has increased the importance of the locations of wiring outlets, and ample number of which must be provided to care for movable lighting fixtures and the outlets be strategetically placed to provide connection for a sufficient number of lights and other appliances to eliminate the nuisance of trailing extension cords.

Where attached lighting fixtures are used, prospective home owners are warned against extreme styles, as they decline rapidly in value due to the whims of fashion. Simplicity of design should be sought.

Living Room Should Be Largest in House

The living room should be the largest room in the home, because it is the meeting place of the family group and visitors.

The size of a living room will vary with the size of the house, the size and circumstances of the family, and the contemplated use of the room.

Adequate exposure to sunlight and attractive views should be taken into consideration in planning the living room, and it should be conveniently accessible to other rooms.

Height of Ceiling Affects Home Cost

The prospective home owner, laying plans for his new home, is advised to consider ceiling heights of the rooms, especially as it affects general construction costs.

One of the chief features of homes erected in the late 90's and early 1900's was the high lofty ceiling. This was believed an aid in keeping the room cool.

Architects today lean toward lower ceilings, having established the fact that any space greater the 12 inches above the window head is of no cooling value unless ventilated.

Large Windows Also May Be Divided

Large panes of glass in windows of awkward size may be divided into the interesting small panes of a Colonial house by means of narnor strips of black gummed paper marking the divisions. Narrow glass shelves built against wide windows give a gay display to your collection of decorative shapes and colors, with small pots of ivy.

Helpful Hints for Using Plastic Paint

In using plastic paint, unpainted plaster is usually given a coat of size if it is new and absorptive. Otherwise the plastic paint may be applied direct. Cracks and holes should be filled with plaster of Paris or crack filler before the size is applied.

Painted walls require no surface preparation for plastic paint unless the finish is glossy, in which case the gloss should be toned down by washing the surface with a weak solution of warm water and sal soda. Calcimine or wall paper should be removed. Wall board requires sizing.

Dining Room Light

Q. Is a center light a good means of illuminating a dining room?

A. Yes. In general, a hanging of a central fixture located in the center of the room and over the dining-room table is very satisfactory. Indirect lighting has also many advantages.

"IF"

By Austin W. Conklin

If you loved me, and I loved you—
(As all good Christians ought to do)
There'd be a lot more good in life—
More harmony, and less of strife.
We'd help each other all we could,
So have a better neighborhood.
And folks would see the difference, too!
If you loved me, and I loved you,
As all good Christians ought to do.

If I loved you and you loved me,
Every spite-fence soon would be Broken down; and it between
Us would never again be seen.
Thenceforе we'd speak, though once estranged,
Our hatred to affection changed.
Say! How much happier we could be
If I loved you, and you loved me—
Just being the folks we ought to be!

We'd BUILD our church—not tear it down!
We'd BOOST — not knock — it all through town.
We'd give our pastor our very best.
Then he'd preach better than the rest.
He'd have our presence, purse and prayers,
We'd share each other's joys and cares;
We'd pledge anew our loyalty,
If I loved you, and you loved me
In real, Christ like sincerity!

If Jesus Christ could have full sway
In both your heart and mine today,
Every feudal feeling would fade
From the Official Board and Ladies' Aid!
We'd pull together—not apart—
Were Christ enthroned in every heart!
We'd do what God would have us do,
If you loved me, and I loved you
In just the way God wants us to.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, JULY 24, 1948

WAGE FORMULA, LIVING COST

When the U. S. Department of Labor got around to approving the General Motors-UAW contract, it did so with the hope that the agreement "may greatly influence the trend of collective bargaining in the United States."

This statement appeared, rather ironically, on the same day that the United States Steel Corporation and the Weirton Steel Company announced hourly wage rises of 13 and 14 cents respectively. Soon after, U. S. Steel announced a sizable price increase.

The steel agreements were not influenced by the General Motors contract, which tied wage increases, and, to a limited extent, decreases to the cost of living. Instead, they added a strong and dangerous pressure to the inflationary spiral at a time when food costs were at a record high. Similar pressure had been applied a few days before by the new contract with the coal miners.

Thus an all too familiar chain reaction has been set in motion again. Our two most important basic materials of industry have given living costs a supercharged acceleration. Their price increases will be the signal for price rises and wage demands in almost every field that uses these materials, even indirectly.

The miners, the steel workers and other employes of industry will get a few more dollars a week and find that those dollars buy less than they did a few weeks before. For most of the rest of us, the situation simply means another dead loss.

The United Auto Workers have found no support for their agreement with General Motors among other unions, not even those within the CIO. Union officials don't want their wages and benefits tied to the government's cost-of-living index. They want those increased wages and benefits to be permanent and progressive, independent of the prosperity of the individual industry or the rest of the general economy.

Probably a good many employers and industries likewise do not favor the UAW-General Motors agreement. They would doubtless rather bargain and haggle over wages once a year than see them subject automatically to unlimited increases and limited declines.

Yet the traditional methods used by the steel companies and the steel unions can only make matters worse. Higher wages and prices not only increase costs, they also increase the falseness of our already false prosperity. More pay for workers simply keeps a desperate situation at the same level of desperation.

Higher prices for manufacturers and retailers simply advance the day when, in spite of unrestricted credit buying, many items will fly out of the consumers' range, and the market for less-than-absolute necessities will close down.

A few manufacturers have attempted some tentative price-cutting, but to no avail. The management and workers of our biggest automobile corporation have tried a sensible remedy, but it hasn't caught on. Living costs keep going up. And, in spite of men like Senator Taft, who tell us that the price situation is "all right," government action seems increasingly inevitable.

Perhaps none of the top men on either side of the management-labor fence want the government to intervene. But we rather think that millions of voters are going to be listening most attentively to what the presidential and congressional candidates have to say about the high cost of living. And we are sure that the ones who come up with suggested solutions that promise to be effective are going to win themselves a lot of votes.

Living costs may not be the most important campaign issue. But there is certainly no issue that is closer to the average American's heart.

SILLY SEASON STUFF

A year and a half ago in Purley, in Surry, England, Mrs. Elaine Jefferies bought some turkey eggs, and set them. One of them hatched. People who thought about it at all supposed that the turkey had been raised, fattened and slain to make a winter holiday. But not so.

Recently Mrs. Jefferies was seen leading a fine plump turkey on a leash through the streets. Asked about it, she explained:

"We just couldn't bear to kill Lesley. She lives in the house, sleeps on the sofa and at Christmas we gave her the seat of honor at the table."

The so-called silly season usually begins a little later than this. It's that let-down time of late summer when anything can happen and something ridiculous usually does. But if this coming silly season can turn up anything sillier than that of Elaine leading Lesley on a leash, it will have to hop to it.

A new engine is said to be driven by hot air, one fuel which will never be in short supply.

KNOW-HOW

It does one good to get away from the great men who have been bawling at us for weeks now and to talk about the simple folks who do the work of this country.

Up here in Sandisfield, in Massachusetts, we have been a long time getting electric power. In spite of all the noise that politicians make about rural electrification, the farmers in these mountains are just getting electricity in the year 1948 and they are very happy to have it, better late than never. But that is not what I want to write about today. It is rather about a foreman, Harry Shutts, who was out on these roads supervising a tough job of digging in this rocky soil, of finding water in every hole, of using inexperienced labor, of getting results such as foremen used to get in the old days before featherbedding, before men were taught to work as little as they could get away with, and often less than that.

I have those, too, up in these parts. I watch their slow motion, their saving of effort, their time-watching at 3:30 to see when their watches will show 4. I have seen them leave work unfinished so that it had to be started all over again the next day. I have seen contractors lose money on jobs because their help did slipshod work that had to be taken down and done again after inspection. I have even seen damage done by careless, ridiculously careless work. And I have listened by the hour to the union rules.

But not the gang that Harry Shutts supervised. They earned their pay and he kept them at work, not by bossing, not by shouting at them, but by his own example and energy. He was like a hen with her chickens, moving here and there, watching that nobody got into trouble, guarding against mistakes and accidents. And the most amusing part of it was that, although no longer a youngster, he showed his crew, mostly of war veterans, how to work up in the crown of a maple, how to climb a pole and all that sort of thing. Apparently he never asked anyone to do anything which he could not or would not do.

It was an impressive picture, lasting about a week near this house, and I suppose all the time in other parts. It was a picture of the kind of hard physical work and straight thinking and decent human relations which built this country before the days when a handout became as respectable as a dollar earned. It was an example of what created the power of America, the tremendous strength of our country which came out of the muscles and sinews and sweat of our people.

It was exciting to see these men put in a high line of power and then to listen to the politicians talk about all the rural electrification they gave us over 16 years and then to watch this efficient crew actually put the poles in the ground, string the wire and tap on the juice. In the fact of the facts, the politicians' talk is just so much static. And nobody needs to ge grateful ever to a politician, who is spending the taxpayer's money.

And that is something they still have to learn. The people know. The people know by daily experience. They shop. They know that meat is not only dear; it is not plentiful. They wonder where it all goes. They wonder whether Communism in Europe can really be defeated by rationing the American people by keeping prices high and exporting excessively.

The farmers know. They know that government buyers keep farm prices high. The farmer is no dope. He knows that he gets more for his product and pays more for what he buys. Sure, his income is up, but so is his outgo, and so do his taxes remain high. He is beginning to calculate, as many of us have already done, that a 50-cent dollar is not a hundred-cent dollar.

Let the politicians talk—but the people know.

That Body of Yours

RELIEVING DEPRESSION

We all are naturally pleased to see how greatly the life span has been extended since 1900. In less than 50 years it has been lengthened about 15 years.

Of course, this means that there will be more old men and women who will require the care of physicians. Thus it is a natural consequence that a new specialty—geriatrics—has arisen, and we have geriatricians helping to make the later years of life more comfortable.

One of the distressing conditions that occurs as people grow older is a feeling of melancholy and depression. Just at the time when older men and women should be enjoying a well earned mental, physical and emotional rest, many are afflicted with deep-seated feelings of melancholy, grief, anxiety and depression. Not only do these old folks suffer themselves, but their families share their grief, too. Fortunately, the operation of lobotomy, cutting the nerves responsible for depression of spirits, now is giving brilliant results. I have mentioned this operation several times, as it is now being performed in various parts of the world.

In the "New England Journal of Medicine," Boston, Drs. A. and P. G. Myerson, whose names have been associated with prefrontal lobotomy treatment, say that mental illness in old age usually is regarded as a hopeless problem. In younger mental patients, satisfactory results are obtained by shock treatments; but unfortunately, old mental patients do not react to shock treatment in a satisfactory way.

Drs. Myerson report on four women more than 60 years of age, with chronic depression of spirits, whose symptoms were greatly relieved by prefrontal lobotomy. Tension of nerves and muscles and distress of spirits were greatly relieved, and there were no loss of intellectual or brain power.

"Old persons with chronic depression should not be regarded as hopeless and doomed to live their remaining years in retreat and unhappiness."

Lobotomy, properly performed, can do them no harm. If this harmless operation is not performed, it means that melancholia and depression of spirits will be added to the physical disabilities of old age.

Neurosis—believing you have a physical ailment when none exists—is becoming increasingly common. Send today for Dr. Barton's informative booklet on this subject entitled "Neurosis." Cozy, What?

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

Washington — Uncensored dispatches from behind the Iron Curtain have increased the fear that Russia may be ready for war now.

Hitherto diplomats felt certain that the Soviet did not want war for at least two or three years—until she could develop the A-bomb. But here are some developments which have taken place behind the Iron Curtain.

1. The Communist-controlled Czech government has just received orders from Moscow to empty a large number of army barracks in western Czechoslovakia in preparation for the early arrival of large Russian troop concentrations. It's important to remember that Czechoslovakia is adjacent to the American zone of Germany. If this report is accurate, the Red Army is moving up units to face U. S. troops in the American zone.

2. The Russians have ordered thousands of bilingual signposts erected all the way from the Soviet border to the German border for the use of Red Army divisions. Word that these signposts are being set up has leaked out through the Czech underground. They all point in the direction of Berlin and Paris.

3. Russia has just occupied 15 new air bases in eastern Germany, west of the Soviet border. Some of these air bases are staffed with the Russian version of the B-29, copied from B-29s which were forced down in Siberia during the war.

4. Russia has quietly summoned home for consultation some of the most trusted diplomats in its foreign service, leaving relative second-stringers in charge of its embassies.

5. Word has gone out from Moscow for the immediate purge of all dissident and weak elements in the Communist party throughout Europe. This means any Communist who doesn't toe the Moscow line unflinchingly is to be ousted. This order reportedly has the blessing of Premier Stalin. It is interpreted to mean that the Kremlin is gearing for a final showdown.

Propaganda Balloons to Russia

Secretary for Air Stuart Symington and Air Force officers are giving serious consideration to the idea of having B-29s drop propaganda messages to the Russian people at the same time that the B-29s reinforce our position in Berlin.

Purpose of the idea would be to remind the Russian people that the American and Russian armies battled as comrades to win the recent war, that our right to remain in Berlin was part of that victory, that the American people do not want war with their former comrades-in-arms and that the propaganda fed them by the Moscow radio that we are panting for war is so much poppycock.

Back of the idea also would be the fact that the 14 men in the Politburo alone can put Russia into a war—unless there is a strong negative urge among the Russian people not to go to war. And the only way to give them that negative urge is to go over the Kremlin's head to make them understand that the American people do not want war either.

Government Reaction

Here is the first-blush reaction of Government officials to the idea of getting these peace appeals via weather ballons to the Russian people.

Weather Bureau—It's perfectly feasible to float small weather balloons from Western Europe to Russia. About 7 out of 10 would get there. By gauging the amount of gas in the ballons it would be possible to fix the approximate point for their landing inside Russia. (The Japs measured the distance across the Pacific during the war to land balloons in the Pacific Northwest.) Best launching place would be Germany or Northern France. They would drift at a speed of from 25 to 50 miles an hour once they reached the upper wind currents.

Air Forces—Unofficially, think the idea is good. However, past experience shows that balloons released from planes in flight crash against the fuselage and break. Therefore, it's proposed that the balloons be released from the ground. (Weather Bureau says this is feasible.)

State Department—Unofficially and very cautiously, thinks idea might be all right.

War Assets Administration—Had large supply of balloons on hand but they're now sold out. Army Signal Corps and Weather Bureau have a certain number which could be borrowed and replaced later.

If it is important to get friendship messages from the American people to the Russian people, then ways and means can be found for doing it. Various patriotic Americans have volunteered to print the messages. The government has plenty of resourcefulness to put across this propaganda—if it wants to.

In wartime we make any sacrifice—blood and treasure—to end a war which has already started. But in peacetime we count the pennies when it comes to preventing a war before it gets started.

Merry-Go-Round

Gen. Omar Bradley, who is a four-star human being as well as a General, has a secretary named Mary Pitcairn. Mary's dad was chairman of the board of the Wabash Railroad—13 cents an hour . . . Movie actor Gene Raymond is learning first hand about the Air Corps' new supersonic plane. He will star in a picture featuring faster-than-sound aircraft . . . Secreary of State Marshall has spent part of three straight weeks in Walter Reed Hospital. He would like to resign—except for his loyalty to Truman . . . Army-Navy brasshats are lathered up over the prospect of having Tom Dewey in the White House, because: They fear a leading ex-brasshat will become his Chief of Staff—Gen. Hugh Drum. General Drum, passed over by General Marshall, finally retired, has been military adviser to Governor Dewey since. If Drum is appointed to Admiral Leahy's place in the next administration, a lot of brasshats would almost faint . . . Although the Democratic and Republican conventions are over, General MacArthur shows no sign of returning to Washington for a visit.

Questions—Answers

Q—Why does a red schoolhouse symbolize education?

A—It was once the custom especially in New England and other northeastern sections of the country, to paint frame schoolhouses red because red paint was cheaper than any other kind obtainable. Thus the little red school became a symbol of popular education.

Q—How did the thimble get its name?

A—Thimble comes from "thumb bell," as it was formerly worn on the thumb. Thumb bell became thimble.

Q—In 1889 the last of the great bare-knuckle championship fights in this country took place. Who were the participants?

A—John L. Sullivan fought 75 rounds with Jake Kilrain.

Q—Where does the expression to "kowtow to someone" come from?

A—Kowtow is a Chinese form of greeting from an inferior to a superior by touching the ground with the forehead.

Q—Which of the evangelists was a painter?

A—Tradition says that Luke was a painter as well as a physician. Especially noteworthy is the attribution to him of a painted portrait of the Virgin Mother first mentioned in a 6th century manuscript.

A Bandit in Your Car

By FRANK TRIPP

I seldom pass a hitch hiker that I don't think of Wade Philpott. What happened to him has thwarted many a ride-thumber out our way.

Wondering how many of those I ignore are potential killers has become sort of a mental pastime as I drive through lanes of outstretched palms.

Philpott; a townsman of mine, befriended a meek looking young stranger, rode him and fed him from Ohio to Southern New York. Almost on his own doorstep the youth assaulted him and left him to die with a bullet in his spine. Then the rider took his car and money and drove into New England. Philpott lived, but is paralyzed.

WE ARE LIKELY to boast of our ability to judge people; think that such a thing could not happen to us; that we can pick strange company with safety. Philpott's experience contradicts this, as do other items in the news.

There was the case in the South where a driver picked up a mere shank of a boy, barefoot and hatless. Within ten miles the timid boy whipped a pistol from his pocket and shot the benefactor dead.

Then another: Ahead trudges an old lady; surely she can be trusted. It would be heartless to pass her by. Invariably it would and you'd ride on for miles berating yourself for your selfishness.

Still, there was the "old lady" who turned out to be an escaped convict; had robbed the woman whose clothes he wore, and stole from her kitchen the knife which he thrust into the back of the man who gave him a ride.

These are not pleasant things to contemplate, yet they should make those who are free with their rides think of the chances they take.

BEFORE THE DAYS of the automobile the railroads furnished this free transportation. Those who took advantage of it were not poor old ladies or barefoot boys. In the vernacular of that day, they were hobos.

They rode the freights or traveled "blind baggage" between express and baggage cars of passenger trains. They have been known to crawl beneath cars and ride great distances on the strut rods.

Lots of them were going no particular place and had nothing to do when they got there, which I suspect is true of many who now infest through highways and beg rides.

THERE IS an old and reliable rule about going in swimming. It warns one never to go in alone where he cannot wade out. Those who pick up riders would do well to apply such a rule and never ride strangers when driving alone. That would help some.

An old policeman endorses that rule and adds another which makes sense: Never, under any circumstances, pick up a stranger when alone, and when not alone, if you pick one up, put him in the front seat beside you and move your companion to the back seat.

"If you pick up two," he adds, "you could be taking your life in your hands."

THE DANGER OF ATTACK is only part of it. The driver is responsible for the safety of his passengers; even could be haled into court if a free rider so much as tore his coat on the car door.

It is a pity if deserving people who beckon at the roadside suffer for the violent acts of the few. But if you are one of the cautious, you need lose no sleep over that.

Those who pretend to know, through some sort of statistics gathered on the topic, say that almost nobody who thumbs rides fails to get them.

That is, eventually along comes an habitual ride donor and all of the hitch hikers, honest or crooked, finally get where they want to go.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, July 22—The grand jury in Waterloo, Ia., has indicted on a charge of manslaughter Fred Lee Roberts, a Negro citizen, who fired a shot when he was attacked by a mob of lynchers during a union riot at the plant of the Rath Packing Company last June.

In Waterloo, as in several cities in Minnesota, the police flinched and the rioters took control. Only in Kansas City, Kan., in this particular chain of strikes, were the police competent and true to their vows. There the cops drove the goons back into their headquarters and waded in after them. The cops then beat up the goons and the riot stopped dead.

Fred Lee Roberts, of Waterloo, will be acquitted of manslaughter because that charge can be sustained only if he wantonly used more force than he need have to defend himself when the police abandoned him to the mob.

The jury will agree that a man attacked by a mob whose members begin by "rocking" his automobile cannot be expected to exercise calm, legal judgment.

The practice of "rocking" cars began at the big automobile plants in Michigan in riots directed by the United Auto Workers under the political patronage of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Thousands of feet of moving pictures show that this was done with the precision of a battle operation by a military combat team and that the goons wore uniform caps like those of Mussolini's Black Shirts.

And the appalling fact survives that Frank Murphy, then governor, now on the Supreme Court, called out the National Guard to suppress law-abiding citizens who were trying to resist the rioters.

Any citizen attacked by a mob is, by the definition of all the New Deal "anti-lynching" bills, a victim of lynching. However, these bills all contain a uniform provision exempting lynchings committed by union rioters.

Actually, even where legitimate "labor" questions do exist, the riot invariably is deliberately caused by the unions. And as all union bosses and New Dealers know, many riots have been caused by Communists who first created the pretext of "labor" questions.

Under the Truman anti-lynching bills, a "labor" riot prompted by Communist insurrectos might cost a thousands lives and lay waste a city and yet remain beneath the official interest of the Department of Justice. On the other hand, a petty disturbance in a sleepy southern watermelon town in which some suspect was beaten up by three or more assailants while the constable snoozed in the barber's chair, would be "lynching" within the meaning of Truman's civil rights program.

Rioting is the gravest kind of breach of the peace short of treason known to British law. The encyclopedia says it "consists in a tumultuous disturbance of the peace by an assemblage of three or more persons who execute that enterprise in a violent and turbulent manner to the terror of the people."

The degradation and corruption of government under Roosevelt and now under Truman are not understood by citizens who slowly came to think of riots as trivial disorders. Riot is a challenge to the authority, integrity and power of government by an internal enemy.

Roosevelt expressed his own corrupt attitude when he told me that the riots at the motor plants in Michigan had been merely "multiple disorderly conduct, multiple assault and multiple malicious mischief." That is all a riot is.

Within the last ten days we have had more instances of "tumultuous disturbance by three or more persons who execute that enterprise to the terror of the people."

In Dayton, O., several young women, law-abiding Americans, were laid low by poison gas sprayed by union rioters. That was lynching and the victims, as noted, were not brutish morons accused of rape but were young women going to their work. Now that the police have let them down these and other young women in Dayton are justified in carrying pistols. When the police fail to protect the citizen, the citizen must protect himself. The surest way is to carry a guy and shoot to kill, not to make a noise, as Fred Lee Roberts did in Waterloo, Ia. They won't rock his car again.

About the time the young women were gassed in Dayton, mobs broke out in South Haven, Mich., and Wheeling, W. Va., and disgraceful pictures showed uniformed cops delicately tussling with goons who were "rocking" cars and smashing windshields. All cops who can be identified in these cases should be canned if not prosecuted. They had guns in view in the pictures and they should have fired. That is why they are given pistols.

The Riot Act is a legal proclamation intended to put down tumult by warning all members of a mob to disperse. Those who fail to disperse may be prosecuted and if they be shot in any ensuing trouble, the fault is all theirs. We use the Riot Act too sparingly.

The Republican platform condemns all mob violence, but actually the north, or the south, needs the protection and reform. More than 99 per cent of the mob action of the last 20 years has been rioting by Roosevelt's unions in the big northern centers. That is why the Truman anti-lynching bills exempt union riots.

An army sergeant demonstrated the power of unflinching authority at Perth Amboy, N. J., the same day the cops in Dayton, South Haven and wheeling dogged it in fear of a few goons. The sergeant had a detail on trucks delivering lifeboats to a boat-works for overhaul. There was a picket line across the gate.

"I have my orders to move these boats and I am prepared to carry out my orders," the sergeant said. "The first man to touch them or interfere with my orders will be shot."

The goons fell away and the boats rolled in.

New York (NEA—Here is proof that this country has talented amateurs who can duplicate or originate fashions comparable to those created by big-time designers.

These fashions won prizes in a national sewing contest and drew palm-smacking applause from fashion-show veterans.

The printed pique dress, right, and the matching pantaloons are two units of a four-piece play outfit designed by Mrs. Clyde Golightly of Gainesville, Texas. This regional prize-winner's design includes a matching bra and deep bertha capelet devised to be worn with the pantaloons for sun-bathing when the dress is removed.—EPSIE KINARD, NEA Fashion Editor.

Dad—It means his wife didn't go with him, Son.

Faces Rough Going

Washington, July 24 (AP)—President Truman got a last taste of smooth sailing on the placid Potomac today as he charted the course he wants Congress to follow to beat back the rising tide of inflation. While he cruised aboard the presidential yacht Williamsburg, storm signals already were flapping on Capitol Hill for his appearance there Tuesday. Republicans said they will give "careful consideration" to the President's suggestions, but they made it clear that his expected plan to use government controls to curb living costs is in for rough weather. A filibuster threat from within his own party also was added to the special session docket.

All's Well Again

New York, July 24 (AP)—Tammany Hall and Mayor William O'Dwyer have laid aside their political warclubs. O'Dwyer wanted Tammany to back City Council President Vincent Impellitteri. Instead, Tiger leaders picked General Sessions Judge Francis L. Valente. After a series of meetings—one which lasted until long after midnight Thursday—both sides agreed to remove their candidates from the race, and enter a new man, General Sessions Judge John A. Mullen.

the temporary tender issued a month ago.

The western powers issued a formal statement saying they were "carefully studying the new Soviet ordinance" and would "take appropriate measures."

Meanwhile the Russians continued their harrassing tactics along the air lanes used by the western allies to supply blockaded Berlin. The British said Soviet planes were conducting bombing practice in the corridor between Berlin and Hamburg. The previous day they charged the Russians with three other flight violations.

Despite Soviet actions the British-American air shuttle continued at a fast pace. Yesterday American planes carried 1,511 tons of fuel and food in 256 flights. The British flew 146 sorties.

In his currency announcement, Sokolovsky declared that the new Russian money would be regarded as "the only legal tender for the Soviet occupation zone and in Greater Berlin."

This reiterated Russian claims that Berlin is economically part of the Soviet zone. In disputing this claim the western ppwers have circulated their own western-German currency.

Sokolovsky said the exchange of the new money for the tender now in circulation would be on a one-for-one basis.

The German Economic Commission of the Soviet Zone said each person would be issued 70 of the new marks in exchange for 70 old ones as a preliminary sum. Whatever sum an individual or a firm has above 70 marks must be deposited. The commission said these deposits will be frozen until August 15. Then they will be released "without any restrictions or reduction."

The new Russian money will be known as the "Deutsche Mark Der Deutschen Notenbank" (German mark of German bank issue). The western powers' currency is called the Deutsche mark.

Sokolovsky said last night through the official Soviet News Agency that "political declarations" attributed to him by the United Press did not "correspond to the facts."

The Russian commander's denial to a U.P. story Thursday in which the agency quoted the marshal as saying the Russians would lift the blockade of Berlin if the Americans would open their zone to Soviet traffic.

The U.P. story said the information was obtained in an exclusive interview with Sokolovsky.

John McDermott, United Press correspondent who wrote the story, said last night he had no comment to make" other than to point out that Soviet News Agency confirms that Marshal Sokolovsky and I had a discussion Thursday night relative to the Berlin blockade. This conversation was faithfully recorded."

The Soviet News Agency's statement said McDermott's conversation with Sokolovsky took place at a reception of the Polish Military Mission.

Flier Who Bombed

pina was much concerned about the possibility of another war.

The man who, as a B-17 turret gunner, had helped drop tons of T.N.T. on Germany said he used a one-pound stick of dynamite to jar the U.N. He attached dynamite to 150 feet of wire which he trailed from the cockpit of the small plane he had rented in Williamantic, Supina related, and touched it off with an electric spark from two flashlight batteries as he flew low over the U.N. buildings.

He intended to harm no one, Supine insisted. Except for a guard who complained that the concussion gave him chest and stomach pains, the blast caused no injury.

After the bombing, Supina landed at LaGuardia Field, visited a niece in New York city, took a bus to Hartford where se spent Thursday night in a hotel, and then decided to return to Lake Success. He said he stopped in New Haven because he ran out of money.

Once they got their hands on Supina, New Haven police declined to let reporters question him further, saying they acted at the request of Nassau county authorities. Detectives reported, however, that he told them he never had been frightened in his life "until two minutes before I reached the U.N."

In nearby Himmden, a war buddy of Supina's, John Preysner, described him as a "fearless man who didn't mind going on missions."

Wallace Accepts

man—he'll accept the Progressives vice-presidential nomination.

Back of the Wallace-Taylor ticket will be a national committee expected to be headed by former Governor Elmer Benson of Minnesota. Also: A singing, crusading band of delegates who showed last night more vocal power per man—and woman—than the Republicans or Democrats earlier were able to register in Philadelphia's overworked and hot Convention Hall.

Wallace is to be formally nominated today by Fred Stover, who announced his resignation as president of the farmers union in Wallace's home state of Iowa in order to work for the new party.

Taylor's name is to be placed before the delegates by Larkin Marshall, Negro newspaper publisher from Georgia.

Wallace-Taylor placards were stacked high in a convenient anteroom. They awaited a demonstration that might not rival in length the 30-and 40-minute shows for Wallace's major party opponents. It was expected however, to produce more real delegate-in-motion noise than either.

Wallace and Taylor marched forth to what even their best friends told them was a losing battle. They carried a flag of peace in one hand and the banner of civil rights in the other.

The Platform

The platform on which they move into November's ballot battle declares that through "good faith" discussion the United States and the Soviet Union can "find areas of agreement to win the peace."

Neither Wallace nor Taylor was willing to repudiate any Communist voter support. Both said emphatically they are not Communists.

But the Communist issue continued to plague the new party as it went about its organization business, spurred by Howard's punch-line keynote address, delivered to the tune of properly-spaced shouts of approval and boos.

One of the biggest collection of boos and hisses came when Howard asserted:

"Our foreign policy is the brainchild of banking house diplomats and banking house brass, of John Foster Dulles and James Forrestal, of Robert Murphy and General William Draper."

In this he was striking directly at G.O.P. nominee Dewey, who has indicated that his secretary of state will be Dulles if the Republicans win in November.

"I say, and we of the new party say, that there is no difference between the United States and the Soviet Union too big to be settled at the conference table," Howard declared.

He said that President Truman had "slammed the door" against any possible negotiations with Russia as a result of Wallace's letter months ago to Stalin.

Benson, opening the convention, told the delegates:

"You can plow your land or draft a soldier, but you can't do both. You can have peace or war, but it will have to be one or the other."

Josiah Gitt, York, Pa., newspaper publisher, said the new party won't be swerved in its course "by fear or timidity."

C. B. Baldwin, who will manage Wallace's campaign but planned to stay aside for Benson as national chairman of the party, said the new group is no "temporary coalition."

Birth of New Party

"This is the birth of a new party—soon to be the first party," he declared.

Wallace kept to his room last night to watch the convention proceedings over television.

Earlier he had been the central figure in an hour and a quarter news conference that at times had the aspects of a three-ring circus.

Wallace clashed with columnists Westbrook Pegler and Dorothy Thompson.

He said the reporters might as well save their strength and not attempt to get him either to denounce the Communists or to embrace them.

The Communists are supporting him, he said, because they want peace to continue their social experiment in Russia. He wants peace, he said, so that "progressive capitalism" will have a chance to make good in America.

He defined this as a sort of mixed capitalism in which the government takes over firms which depend almost entirely for their profits on government contracts. He said the aircraft industry, for example, falls in this class.

shortage of meat, poultry and dairy products.

"Now with a sharp increase in available grain, the governor said, "It is of first importance that our national policies be so shaped that it will be easy and natural for the livestock men and the poultry producers of the nation to start rebuilding their herds and flocks to the new high level we will need to maintain the kind of a diet the American people want and need."

Dewey said a threat to production was "the constantly rising spectre of animal disease." He added, "we must develop a very much better system of coordination and exchange of information concerning animal disease as research progresses at our land grant colleges and federal experiment stations."

He welcomed to the meeting Albert Mitchess, of New Mexico, an expert on cattle diseases; Senator George D. Aiken of Vermont, acting chairman of the Senate Committee on Agriculture, and Rep. Clifford R. Hope of Kansas, chairman of the House Committee on Agriculture.

Dewey invited the farm editors to his dairy farm to inspect work being done in the advanced milking practices, development of grass ensilage, use of trench silos and the prevention of mastitis.

May Be Murder Case

Sparkill, N. Y., July 24 (AP)—The death of a 64-year-old hotel owner here has touched off an investigation into a mystery, that police say may include murder. The man, known here as Harry Ferber, was found dead yesterday in his unused hotel. His wallet contained this note: "In event of death, my real name is Henry Hugo William Hoffman." Orangetown Chief of Police Fred Kennedy said he had learned through anonymous letters sent him that $10,000 insurance had been paid on the man's reported death nine years ago. Authorities said the New York Life Insurance Company had started suit to recover the insurance payment, but that the beneficiaries, Mrs. Anna Hoffman and a daughter, of Brooklyn, had disappeared.

Ku Klux Klan Active

Stone Mountain, Ga., July 24 (AP)—The Ku Klux Klan is on the march again. A red-robed "grand titan" introduced Dr. Samuel Green, grand dragon of the Association of Georgia Klans, as "the official national head of the Klan in America."

Clum Gives Welcome

A short welcoming address was made by Mayor Franklin P. Clum of Saugerties, who said that the association was a growing one and that it has done much for the county.

Secretary Fred C. Harder in his report pointed out that the present membership of the Ulster County Firemen's Association consists of 58 fire companies and 826 paid-up members. Since the last convention, Harder said, two new companies have joined, the Olive Bridge and the Big Indian-Oliverea companies. He also announced that the August meeting will be held in Highland, the September meeting in Glasco, the October meeting in Woodstock and the November meeting in Lomontville.

Explains Fire School

Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy of Kingston made a report to the members on the new state law which created the Bureau of Fire Mobilization and Control as a part of the Division of Safety. This bureau will conduct fire training schools in counties at state expense, he said. In order to receive the benefits of this provision, the Ulster County Board of Supervisors has already appointed a committee of two to establish such a school here, Chief Murphy informed the members.

The climax of this thirteenth annual convention was scheduled for 2 p. m. today, with the parade to be held through the streets of Saugerties and refreshments to be served at Cantine Memorial Field when the parade disbands.

Sees Continuation Of Red Aims to Take All Europe

Indication Is Failure of Conference for Western Allies and Stalin

By WES GALLAGHER

Berlin, July 24 (AP)—What are the prospects of the western powers reaching an agreement with Russia over Germany at a new Big Four conference?

No one definitely can answer this question except Prime Minister Stalin and possibly the Politburo. But sitting inside this blockaded city well behind the Soviet curtain across Europe gives you an inside view of Russian tactics. From these tactics it seems possible to draw some conclusions.

One is this: It appears from here that Washington, Paris and London are indulging in wishful thinking that such an agreement can be reached.

Since the Big Four foreign ministers deadlocked at the London conference no change in Soviet policy has been apparent. This policy has the avowed aims of (1) wrecking the European Recovery Program and (2) seizing control of Europe.

Must Take Control

The quickest and most decisive way to achieve both objectives is to seize political and economic control of Germany. This is still the fundamental aim of Soviet policy in Germany. But Russian tactics to achieve this aim have been changed by conditions.

When the western powers decided to set up a west German government independent of the Soviet Union they posed a number one threat to Russian plans. For if a west German government were successful it would not only deny the Soviets control of Germany but might suck eastern Germany into the western orbit. Likewise, it would almost insure the success of the European Recovery Program.

The Soviets had failed to achieve their objective at the conference table. They were faced not only with their original problem of seizing all of Germany but also with halting the development of western Germany.

So they resorted to force in an effort to succeed where diplomacy had failed. They withdrew from four-power machinery. Berlin was chosen for the point of pressure because it is one of the most vulnerable and important western positions.

Thought Allies Weak

The Russians moved slowly and cautiously at first. Then, with increasing speed and boldness in the face of western indecision and weakness, the Soviets set out to blockade and strangle Berlin.

This policy had two possibilities: (1) to force the western allies from the city or (2) to get them to agree to a Germany constructed on Soviet terms.

Either one would achieve Soviet aims. Withdrawal of American forces from Berlin in the face of Soviet pressure would start such a wave of fear in Germany and Europe that there would be no hope of building a western Germany willing to resist Communism.

The first step in obtaining a Germany suitable to the Soviet Union must come through a new foreign ministers conference. Reports indicate that London, Paris and Washington are on the point of agreeing to such a meeting.

There seems little reason for the Soviets to enter such a conference in a spirit of compromise. And there is no indication here that they intend to do so.

National Division Stars Trip Americans, 7-5, In Softball

Buddenhagen Benefit Game Raises $34

By JASON GOUMAS

The National Division softball team defeated the Americans, 7 to 5, Thursday at Hasbrouck Park in a benefit game which netted $34 for the Don Buddenhagen benefit.

Approximately 500 fans attended the benefit contest for the Veteran of Foreign Wars player who suffered a broken wrist in a league contest several weeks ago.

The City Softball League is expected to vote at least $40 for Buddenhagen at its next meeting.

Lowe Injured

The contest was very well played and was marred only by an injury to starter Ed Lowe of the Nationals. Lowe was injured in a collision with Milt Dubin at first base and suffered a gash over his left eye. Three stitches were required to close the wound.

Harold "Chick" Smith, who was nominated starting hurler for the Nationals, showed up but couldn't play due to a blister on his pitching hand.

There was only one extra base hit in the whole game—Jack Ruzzo's homer over Hoffman's head in the fifth—with the bases empty.

Safeties Scarce

Lowe, Bigler and T. Spada limited the Americans to five hits, while the winners were able to collect only one more off the combined offerings of Weeks, Enright, Basch and Houghtaling. No player on either side connected for more than one safety.

City League officials expressed complete satisfaction with the players' performance and the fans' reaction to the contest. Two more such games are planned in the next few weeks.

Some of the most dazzling plays of the year were reeled off. Maines and Schrader made spectacular catches in the field for each side.

Legion Tourney Starts Here July 30

Kingston Plays Troy in Opener

The Third District American Legion junior baseball tournament will start in Kingston on Friday, July 30, with a twilight-night doubleheader at municipal stadium.

First game is scheduled for 7 p. m.

American Legion dignitaries, including State Legion Commander Art Duffy of Brooklyn, will take part in the pre-game ceremony. Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk and Dick Conners, district Legion baseball chairman, also will speak.

Play Troy Nine

The first night pairings list the Van Deloo-Miller Post of Albany against Sullivan county at 7 p. m.

The 1948 American Legion junior squad of this city is sponsored by George Shivery of Old Capitol Motors.

Finals are scheduled either Sunday or Monday with the winning team going to Buffalo or Syracuse for the state finals.

Kingston's first Legion competition in more than a decade is expected to attract a record turnout.

Competitors in the district represented Albany, Rensselaer, Columbia, Sullivan, Greene and Ulster counties. The Kingston team automatically qualifies for the district tournament.

Maines Confident

Tommy Maines, head coach of Old Capitols, has high hopes of bringing the locals through unscathed in the district tournament. Tommy was a member of a great Kingston team which captured the state championship one year. To date the club has won three out of four games, losing only to Highland Legion, a light semi-pro squad.

All teams that appear in Kingston will have survived county eliminations. Coach Maines says his squad is in good shape and confident of victory.

Among the standouts are such well known players as Mike Rienzo, Ronnie and Bud Scheffel, Saugerties, Butch Rowland, Pete Boolukos, Bill Mulligan, Rod Whitaker and many other good young ball players.

Chief opposition is expected from Albany county area where Albany and Troy will field crack squads.

Major League Roundup

By The Associated Press

By JACK HAND

Now that Joe McCarthy has found some pitching, the Boston Red Sox look like the roughest club in the American League.

It used to be an occasion for a 24-gun salute when a Sox hurler went the route. Now they go nine innings almost every day.

Of course, the Sox have been picking on the weak sisters of the league during their current streak, beating St. Louis four and Chicago five. But they have swept 19 of 23 against all comers since July 4th.

Williams Returns

Ted Williams, who missed 15 games due to a torn rib cartilage, returned to the lineup yesterday and immediately made known his presence. He collected two hits, including a double with the bases full, to back up Mickey Harris' five-hit job on Chicago for a rollicking 13-1 romp.

The Indians, buffeted by the Yanks in New York where they dropped two of three, were rained out of yesterday's scheduled stadium finale. Consequently they got to Boston with a half game lead on Philadelphia and 1½ over the Sox.

Rain helped the Athletics last night. They were trailing the St. Louis Browns 6-0 in the third inning when the game had to be postponed because of wet grounds and rain.

Detroit had a big inning at Washington, scoring seven in the fourth, to blast the Senators, 11-5. Reliefer Virgil Trucks, working 3 2/3 hitless innings, gained his ninth victory and his fifth straight.

The National League battle tightened a bit as Brooklyn knocked off Pittsburgh, 4-3, while the Boston Braves were losing to St. Louis, 7-5. As a result, the Braves lead was clipped to 5½ games.

Erv Palica, relieved by Hank Behrman in the eighth, assured the Brooks of their eighth victory in 10 starts since Burt Shotton replaced Leo Durocher as manager. Homers by Pee Wee Reese and Tommy Brown ruined Mel Queen's first start since July 6.

The Cardinals knocked out Johnny Sain, Boston's top winner, in a four-run third inning. They continued to blast Nels Potter for a total of 15 hits, including three each by Stan Musial, Enos Slaughter, Del Rice. Rookie Al Dark accounted for four of the 12 hits off Al Brazle.

Jansen Wins 12th

Larry Jansen notched win No. 12, a fine five-hit shutout for New York over Chicago, 5-0. Johnny Mize's 23rd homer off Russ Meyer with Billy Rigney on base in the first started Jansen on his way. It was Mize's 280th homer in the majors.

The Philadelphia Phils made a triple play in the fourth inning of their 6-1 victory over Cincinnati. Robin Roberts hurled steady eight-hit ball for his fourth big league success. Howie Fox was the loser.

With men on first and second, Virgil Stallcup lined to Third Baseman Ralph Caballero to start the triple play, second in the league this season.

Korponay, Colonial Slugger Headed for Colonials?

The Poughkeepsie Chiefs have granted the Colonials permission to deal with Alex Korponay, heavy hitting outfielder, who is the property of the Bridge City club, Business Manager Ted Lavlano of Kingston announced today.

Korponay, a .343 slugger in 1947, quit the Chiefs after playing only a few games this season. He is reported to have been dissatisfied with the Chiefs.

Lavlano said that if Korponay agrees to terms he will be secured from Poughkeepsie by purchase or a player trade.

"I'm a bit concerned by the Colonials' batting slump," Lavlano said, "and I'm making every effort to land a couple of good hitters and a pitcher."

Genial Ted said he already has contacted the Washington Senators, Detroit Tigers and Birmingham of the Southern Association for possible assistance.

Korponay would be a big help to the Colonials, if past records mean anything. He appeared in 108 games for the Chiefs last year, blasting 136 hits in 396 at bats. He scored 85 runs, drove in 94 and slugged 22 doubles, 11 triples and five home runs. Not a bad guy to have around.

Red Barber Stricken While Playing Golf

Pittsburgh, July 24 (AP)—Radio announcer Walter (Red) Barber, New York sportcaster who relates the play-by-play of the Brooklyn Dodger baseball game, was reported in satisfactory condition today in Presbyterian Hospital.

Barber collapsed yesterday after playing golf at the Pittsburgh Field Club. He was traveling with the Dodgers.

Physicians said "from what we can determine Barber is suffering from a gastro-intestinal illness. He is resting comfortably but probably will remain here for observation a few days."

New Orleans — Lee Campione, 179, Chicago, stopped Louis "Whitey" Berlier, 182¾, New Orleans, 4.

Weather Worries Reading Leader

Reading, Pa., July 24 (AP)—Rod Munday, York (Pa.) Country Club pro tied for the lead with young Freddy Haas of New Orleans in the $15,000 Reading Open said today he's more worried about the weather than his competitors.

"This may sound strange for a comparative golfing unknown who has to face another 36-hole challenge by the 10 leading pro circuit money winners plus a host of other brilliant shotmakers.

But he said it: "I'm playing the greatest golf of my life and if the weather doesn't get sultry hot and it doesn't rain, I'll win this tournament." Munday explained that in hot weather his hands perspire and he has no confidence in his grip.

Munday—and Haas, too, for that matter—has been shooting brilliant golf. Both have 12-under-par 132's at the halfway mark. Both shot 65's opening day—the Berkshire Country Club course record—and came back with a five-under 67 yesterday. Munday never has won a major tournament.

He's playing perfect golf through the first 36 holes—with 10 birdies, 25 par holes and one eagle.

Athletic Field, Hasbrouck Lead K.A.A.'s Peewee League

Athletic Field and Hasbrouck Park moved into a tie for first place in the Kingston Athletic Association's Peewee Baseball League this week.

A six-run second inning enabled the Athletic Field to edge Sahler's, 7 to 5, while Hasbrouck made a strong finish with five runs in the last two innings to nose out Cornell Park, 7 to 6.

The Stadium won its first victory 9 to 7 over Block Park, inflicting the first defeat on the downtown youngsters. A Block rally fell short in the seventh.

Ingle Hits Homer

Ingle of the Stadium nine cracked a homer and single in addition to pitching six-hit ball. He fanned eight men. Dunham of the Stadium and Kidd of Block Park also had two safeties. The winners tallied six runs in the first two innings to lead 6-5. Hooker poled a double and triple for the losers.

Telepas of the Athletic Field pitched a one-hitter against Sahler's, a single by the opposing pitcher, Jim Cullum, Jr., who gave up five. Telepas fanned 13 and Cullum had 10 strikeout victims. Telepas also was the leading batter with a single and double.

Hasbrouck converted three hits and 15 walks into victory over Cornell Park tossers who made only two hits off Albright and Jankowski and were aided by 11 walks. E. Kozlowski rapped a double for Cornell.

Hasbrouck Rallies

Cornell led 5-0 at one stage but Hasbrouck scored two in the fourth, three in the sixth and tallied the tying and winning runs in the last of the seventh. E. Kozlowski and Dunn collected the Cornell safeties, while Gill, Bradley and Jankowski hit safely for Hasbrouck.

Winning pitchers this week were Ingle, Stadium; Telepas, Athletic Field; and Jankowski, Hasbrouck.

Byrne-Torgerson State Golf Final

Syracuse, N. Y., July 24 (AP)—Kay Byrne of the Westchester Hills Country Club had her heart set today on recapturing the New York state women's golf title from Ruth Torgerson.

Mrs. Torgerson, from the Cherry Valley Club, Garden City, L. I., eliminated Mrs. Harry McNaughton of New Hempstead, 4 and 3, yesterday to reach today's 36-hole final round of the 19th annual tournament.

Miss Byrne carded a 5 and 4 victory over Jean Davis of Cortland and East Rockaway, a physical education teacher who competed for the first time. The 23-year-old Miss Davis had advanced to the semi-finals with a 1 up over Mrs. James Sherman of Utica.

At the halfway mark yesterday, Mrs. Torgerson was 2 up over Mrs. McNaughton, the former Marion Turpie Lake, 1937 title holder.

Mrs. Torgerson succeeded Miss Byrne in 1946 as champion. The latter won in 1943 and 1945.

Bush Blanks Wiltwycks For Chez Emile, 4 to 0

Bob "Schoolboy" Bush recaptured the pitching form of a decade ago yesterday and it was rough on Wiltwyck Motors' fast fading pennant hopes in the four-alarm City League race.

Pounds lighter but equally as effective as in his Kyanize heyday, the erstwhile schoolboy phenom throttled the Motormen with three hits and struck out nine for an impressive 3-0 victory.

The triumph sent Chez Emile into a triple tie for second place, one game off the pace, with Jones Dairy and Boulevard Gulf.

Lou "Duke" Secreto pitched well enough for Wiltwycks after a shaky first inning in which the Chezzies jammed across three runs. That was more than enough to win as Bush mowed down the opposition with scarcely any threats.

Dulin Starts Rally

Dick Dulin, ex-K.H.S. star greeted Secreto with a single to start the game. Bob Gill ditloed. Crosby's sacrifice advanced both men and Leo Vertetis doubled them home and followed them across on Hasbrouck's one timer Pronto 3-0 Chez Emile.

Singles by Lindhurst and Dulin and Schaffer's miscue accounted for the final marker in the second. Neither side threatened seriously after that, although players of both squads turned in sensational catches.

Danny Brown of Wiltwycks made two great catches of long fly balls in left field, while Dick Dulin of Chez Emile backed up against the 325-foot marker on the left field barrier to haul down Nicholich's bid for a homer.

Dulin and Gill were leading batters with two hits apiece.

Old 'Bananas' Return Likely To Set OB Attendance Record

Heny "Zeke" Bonura, the Big Man, comes striding into town tonight with his last place Stamford Pioneers and a prodigal son's greeting awaits him. Game time is 8:45 p. m.

That Kingston is a game and a half ahead of the Pioneers is merely incidental to the drama surrounding tonight's contest which is expected to set a new attendance racord for O.B. in Kingston.

Manager Ed Kobesky has a choice of flingers to throw against Bonura's clan and Dave "Judge" Cashion is the probable starter.

Fireworks Expected

The game promises to resemble the annual clambake of Joe's Bar and Grill cohorts. Bonura, who has promised to ride into town in an automobile and leave his horse at home, will be hung in effigy on Wall street today and later at the stadium.

Long range hitting is in prospect when Bonura, one time seige gun of Washington Senators and Chicago White Sox, matches power against Kingston's Eddie Jobesky who is currently on a rampage. Bonura leads the league with 16 homers, with Kobesky only three behind and coming up fast.

Musial's Brother

Harry Bedell's impressive 4-2 victory over Waterbury Thursday night set the Colonials in the proper frame of mind to meet the Stamford challenge. Bedell has won three straight since the club transferred to Kingston.

Of interest to fans is the presence of Ed Musial in left field for Stamford. He is a brother of the Cardinals' famous Stan and like his brother he bats and throws left and is around the .300 mark.

No Money—Just Baseballs

Colonial officials said they would not have any $6,500 or half the town waiting for Bonura tonight. If anything, they'll greet "Bananas" with a barrage of base hits.

Eddie Butka, who appears to have regained his batting eye slowly will bat in the No. 3 spot ahead of Kobesky with Max Goldsmith behind the manager. That trio in top form would give Mr. Bonura a large headache before the night is over.

Oh, yes! That third base rooting section is primed for Zeke. He'll be reminded of a lot of things—and some will sting.

Kiwanis Club Entertains Kids on Annual Trip

(with) JAKE CHICHELSKY

The City Softball League expresses its appreciation to the sport fans of Kingston for making possible the success of the Don Buddenhagen benefit game. The collection amounted to $34.

A vote of thanks to the many sponsors for donating bats and balls. Among the donors were Tom Qualtiere, Subway Grill; Tom Provenzano, Royal Grill; Len Sickler, Sickler's Delivery; Charles Horne, manager of the Hercules team; Lou and Hess Kantrowitz who are donating trophies to the city playoff champions this season.

Stanley Kaplan of B'nai B'rith was official scorekeeper and had no easy chore as 21 players got into the boxscore on each side. . . . Eddie Reilly, Jr. came out of retirement to call balls and strikes. . . . There were several squeakers on the bases. . . . Eddie Lowe was a casualty in a daring play on first base. Lowe had difficulty fielding a ground ball and collided with Milt Dubin who was dashing down the first base line. Lowe suffered a cut above the eye and had to be removed from the game. Walt Bigler, who was warming up at the time, was called in to relieve by Manager Tommy Lewis.

On a different play Al Hunt accidentally tripped while attempting to score. Everyone feared he suffered a dislocated shoulder but he got up and said everything was okay and finished the game. . . . The big crowd strung along the baselines and on the hill gave the contest a "big game" atmosphere. . . . Jason Goumas, the Dick Young of softball writers, furnished the press with the details. Oh yes! How about the score? The Nationals came from behind to take the Americans, 7 to 5.

BONDOUT VALLEY SOFTBALL LOOP:

Bullock's Haulers of Ellenville are first half champions of the Bondout Valley softball circuit. . . . Schenck's Clothiers of Kerhonkson, who finished second, dropped a tough 3-2 decision to Bullocks in the payoff game. . . . We hear that Newcombe Oil of Kingston has accepted the challenge issued by Sgt. John Hopkins of Schenk's traveling outfit.

ANENT OUTSTANDING PLAYERS:

Joe Mannello of Hercules and Paul Kaman of Newcombe Oil are a couple of solid, perhaps underrated ball players, who made the all-star game and are always dependable for high grade performances. Mannello can be classified as the sparkplug of Hercules team. He usually comes up with an extra base hit in every game. . . . That may be the basic reason for that broad smile on Charlie Horne's face these days. . . . Kaman's batting average speaks for itself. . . . He clouted a terrific .636 during the first round to lead the pack. . . . Wonder if he is eligible for a case of Wheaties, just like some bowler we know.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS:

ATTENTION GIANT FANS! How about getting up a special day for our favorite, Mel Ott. We believe Irwin Thomas and Bob "Giants" Tierney are two capable men who can get the ball rolling. This could be co-ordinated with that special "Wes Westrum Day" that Charlie Tiano proposed several weeks ago.

'Released Time' Legal

Harrisburg, Pa., July 24 (AP)—Pennsylvania's justice department has ruled that so-called "released time" religious training is legal if held outside public schools. The ruling came in opinion submitted to Dr. Francis B. Haas, state superintendent of public instruction, on the effect in Pennsylvania of a recent U. S. Supreme Court decision on the subject. Attorney General T. McKeen Chidsey said the ultimate decision on whether a particular program is constitutional rests with local authorities.

The estimate made by said Board of Public Works of the maximum cost of the said object or purpose is hereby determined to be $5,100. The plan of financing is the issuance of capital notes in the said principal amount and the levy of taxes upon all the taxable property in the City to pay the principal of and interest on the said notes to the extent to which any special assessments to be hereafter levied by the City shall be inadequate for such payment.

Section 2. For the purpose of financing the appropriation by Section 1 hereof, capital notes are hereby authorized to be issued in the principal amount of $5,100 pursuant to the provisions of the Local Finance Law, constituting Chapter 33-a of the Consolidated Laws of the State of New York, as amended.

Sec. 3. The following additional matters are hereby determined and stated:

(1) The period of probable usefulness of the construction of said skating rink within the limitations of Section 11.00 a 19 of said Local Finance Law, were bonds to be issued by the City for the financing of such construction, is ten (10) years.

(2) Current funds are not required by said Law to be provided as a down payment for the issuance of the capital notes authorized by this ordinance.

(3) An installment of not less than fifty per centum (50%) of the principal amount of such notes shall mature in the first fiscal year succeeding the fiscal year in which such notes are issued and the remaining principal amount of such notes shall mature and be paid not later than the last day of the second fiscal year succeeding the fiscal year in which such notes are issued.

Sec. 4. The note or notes authorized by this ordinance shall contain the recital of validity prescribed by Section 52.00 of said Law and said notes shall be general obligations of the City of Kingston, payable as to both principal and interest by general tax upon all the taxable real property within the City without limitation as to rate or amount. The faith and credit of the City of Kingston are hereby irrevocably pledged to the punctual payment of the principal of and interest on said notes and provision shall be made annually in the budgets of the City by appropriation for (a) the redemption of the notes to mature in such year and (b) the payment of interest to be due and payable in such year.

Sec. 5. The validity of the notes authorized by this ordinance may be contested only if (1) such obligations are authorized for an object or purpose for which the City is not authorized to spend money, or (2) the provisions of law which should be complied with at the date of the publication of this ordinance are not substantially complied with, and an action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity is commenced within twenty days after the date of such publication, or (3) such obligations are authorized in violation of the provisions of the Constitution.

Sec. 6. Subject to the provisions of this ordinance and of the provisions of said Local Finance Law, and pursuant to Section 50.00 and Sections 57.00 to 60.00 of said Law, the powers and duties of the Common Council relative to prescribing the terms, form and contents and as to the sale and issuance of the notes authorized by this ordinance, are hereby delegated to the Treasurer as the chief fiscal officer of the City.

Sec. 7. This ordinance shall be published at least twice in The Kingston Daily Freeman and The Ulster County News and Kingston Leader, together with a notice prescribed by Section 81.00 of the Local Finance Law appended by the City Clerk (which newspapers are allied to and support the two political parties which cast the greater number of votes in the preceding general election and are the official newspapers of the City) and shall take effect immediately after such publication.

Tournament bridge is becoming popular throughout the world. There is a very good group of players in Kingston, Jamaica. As a matter of fact, one of the Kingston players was a member of the team that tied for the national women's team-of-four championship last year.

Frank E. Lyons, one of the most active members of the tournament group there, sent in today's hand, and it is one of the prettiest hands I have seen in some time. Doesn't it look as if West must make two heart tricks? Well, here is the way Mr. Lyons made six hearts.

West opened the king of diamonds, which was won in dummy, and the three of clubs was led to declarer's ace. Lyons then led the four of spades and won it in dummy with the ten-spot. On the king of clubs he discarded his four of diamonds. Then the six of diamonds was led from dummy, trumped with the deuce of hearts, and the jack of spades overtaken in dummy with the ace. The eight of diamonds was trumped with the three of hearts.

Now Lyons led the five of hearts. West put on the ten-spot and the trick was won indummy with the king. The queen of clubs was trumped by declarer with the six of hearts, the queen of spades was cashed, then the king of spades was led.

West had the queen, jack and eight of hearts, while dummy had the nine-four of hearts and ten of diamonds. Lyons was left with the ace and seven of hearts. If West trumped the king of spades with the eight of hearts, Lyons would overtrump in dummy with the nine. If West trumped with the jack, Lyons would discard the ten of diamonds, and West would be forced to lead from the queen-eight of hearts into Lyons' tenace position.

A blinker light that reduces the hazards of tire-changing at night is available to motorists. When a flat occurs, the safety light, which operates off the car's battery, is placed on the highway.

So They Say..

Out of the best and most productive years of each man's life, he should carve a segment in which he puts his private career aside to serve his community and his country.
—David E. Lilienthal, chairman, U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, calling for universal public service.

For the first time in my life I know what it feels like to be hit by a streetcar.
—Gov. Earl Warren, accepting the G.O.P. nomination for vice-president.

We can go a long way if we develop weapons so terrible that we won't have to use them, and thereby make war further away.
—Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Army chief of staff.

We would like to conclude a pact with the United States similar to the Brussels pact but we are obliged to admit failure to obtain it.
—Georges Bidault, French foreign minister.

There is literally nothing the people of this country cannot achieve. . . . In this hour of crisis it behooves all Americans to close ranks and work for the common safety, the common welfare.
—Philip Murray, president, C.I.O.

The manufacture of cigarettes in the United States began about 1864.

We were stuck with a broken axle in a busy thoroughfare. I'm happy to say Officer Bartroff with a smile came to our car and offered to get help which he did at once. Also received courtesy from Officer Burger, Jr.

Your force is to be congratulated. With appreciation and thanks, I remain,

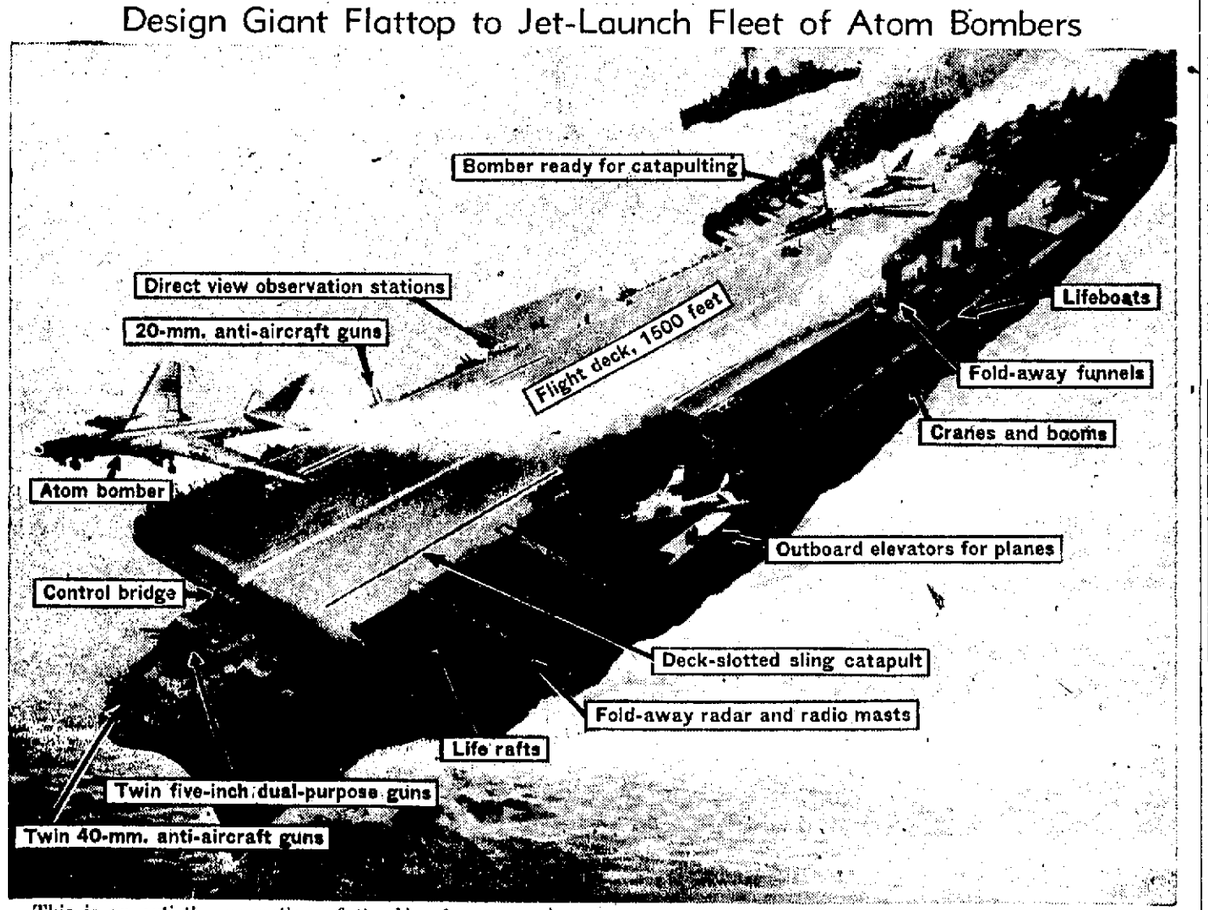
Wife Blames Heart

Machias, Me., July 23 (AP)—Mrs. Margaret Mary Marcil, 36, of Schenectady, N. Y., attractive blonde charged with murder of her husband, Oscar, 56, says a heart attack caused his death. Her husband, Mrs. Marcil's counsel quoted her last night as saying, suffered from shortness of breath for a year. Francis E. Day of Calais, Mrs. Marcil's lawyer, said he will insist that the Schenectady super market manager's heart as well as his stomach be examined by doctors.

Agreement on Wages

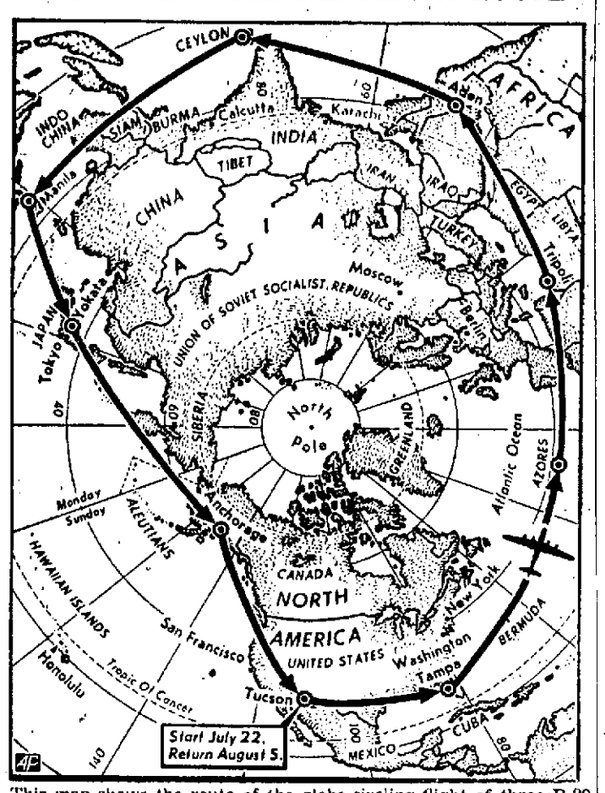
New York, July 24 (AP)—Bethlehem Steel Company has agreed to a wage settlement affecting 28,000 employes which reportedly provides a nine-cent hourly wage boost. Although neither the company nor the C.I.O. Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers would disclose terms of the settlement yesterday, it was reported the agreement included the wage increase.

Design Giant Flattop to Jet-Launch Fleet of Atom Bombers



This is an artist's conception of the Navy's proposed new aircraft carrier, designed to jet-launch a task force of huge atom bombers. The 65,000-ton ship, whose deck is the equivalent of 10,000 feet of runway, may be ready by 1952. Mechanix Illustrated Magazine photo from NEA.

ROUND-THE-WORLD B-29 FLIGHT ROUTE



This map shows the route of the globe-circling flight of three B-29 Army Air Force bombers. The planes took off from Tucson, Ariz., July 22 and are due back there on August 5.

No Grass Grows Under His Feet

Little Danny Lee Stratton, 2, is one of those boys who likes to help grandpa mow the lawn, but often gets too close to the sharp blades. So Joe Vickers Sr., of Ponca City, Okla., built a little seat for Danny atop the lawn mower. Now Danny really helps, but runs no risk of getting mowed himself.

General Crashes

Newark, N. J., July 24 (AP)—Overshooting a runway was blamed today for the crash of a U. S. Army B-25 bomber yesterday, injurying the commanding general of the First Air Force at the controls. The plane apparently hit a gully at the end of a runway, air force officials said. The landing gear and engines were wrenched off as it skidded to a halt and burst into flames. The First Air Force commander, Maj. Gen. Robert M. Webster of Worcester, Mass., received minor face cuts. He remained in the burning plane to pull to safety the co-pilot, Capt. Wilber W. Walton of East Lansing, Mich., who received head injuries.

Likes Farm Better

Philadelphia, July 24 (AP)—Quiet, good-looking Mrs. Henry A. Wallace says she would rather stay on her South Salem, N. Y., farm than live in the White House. She indicated she does not expect the election to be a call for her to make the move. "But," she said during a news conference yesterday, "I hope my husband gets a big vote. I think that's important. And I think he'll get a larger vote than many people expect."

INSPECT BULLET HOLES

county, described the move as a "precautionary measure." Walters said he did not expect mob violence against Daniels, describing the crowds which milled around the Van Wert jail as orderly. Van Wert is about 25 miles north of here.

Signs Confession

Daniels signed a confession last night, admitting the cornfield slayings of John E. Niebel, 50, Mansfield reformatory farm superintendent; his wife, Nolanda, 52, and their daughter, Phyllis, 21.

He said West shot and killed Earl C. Ambrose, Columbus tavern owner; James Smith, a young Tiffin, O., farmer; and Orville Taylor, Niles, Mich., father of four, who was driving the automobile haulaway.

Michigan state police said they were convinced the pair did not murder Frank Krech, Flat Rock, Mich., tourist camp operator. West and Daniels also had been sought for the holdup-slaying of Krech.

Authorities apparently were agreed that Daniels will be tried in Richland county—site of the Mansfield Reformatory — for the Niebel slayings. Prosecutor Theodore Lutz of Richland county said he was preparing first degree murder charges and expected to file them at Mansfield sometime today.

Both Daniels, a resident of Columbus, and West, of Parkersburg, W. Va., served terms at the Mansfield Reformatory.

Daniels, known as a "well-mannered, cheerful, soft-spoken fellow" by neighbors, had pride in his voice as he described how he shot down the Niebel family last Wednesday.

"Johnny (West) and I planned this for three or four months," he said:

"We wanted to beat hell out of him (Neibel), and if they'd given me a little more time, we'd have wiped 'em all out, those ——— at the reformatory.

"We really went to the reformatory the other day to get Red Phillips (a guard), but we couldn't find him. We killed the Niebels about 1:30 a. m. I went to the door, which Niebel answered, and told him our car was broken down and asked if I could use the phone. He let me in, and I covered him with my gun.

"Then Johnny came in and covered him while I went upstairs and got the women. They were all fully clothed, and we drove right through Mansfield with them. We made them undress in the car, and throw their clothes out along the road.

"We finally got to the cornfield, and told them to walk in. There was no criminal attack on the women, and we didn't slug anybody. He (Niebel) told the others not to offer any resistance, and they didn't.

"I told them to line up. Then I shot him, then the girl and then the woman."

Keeps Them Cool

Clifton, N. J., July 24 (AP)—Twenty-three persons, "stored" in a refrigerator while a bandit looted a restaurant, thawed today while the owners counted their losses. A lone gunman locked eight employes of Howard Johnson restaurant in a big refrigerator yesterday while he waited for someone to open the safe. Finally, Milton Turner of Ridgewood, described as the owner, appeared, and the gunman forced him to open the safe. Turner then joined the others in the refrigerator. He tossed them all the coats he could find, and several bottles of whiskey to help keep warm.

Going to Die, No Reply

Philadelphia, July 24 (AP)—A notice to remit $5.35 on delinquent wage taxes was sent to Harry Zeitz, 18, by the city solicitor's office with a warning he would face court action unless payment was made at once. Zeitz had no reply, he is under death sentence in Bucks County Jail for the fatal shooting of William Kelly during a holdup of an inn at Feasterville, La., last December.

Merge to Beat A.L.P.

New York, July 24 (AP)—Bronx Democrats and Republicans have merged forces in an effort to defeat the American Labor Party in the 24th Congressional District. The two parties yesterday named as State Senator Isidore Dollinger as their candidate in the race. He will oppose the A.L.P. incumbent, Rep. Leo Isacson. The move involved the withdrawal from the contest of the Republican candidate, Abraham Greenbush, who filed a declination with the Board of Elections.

Red View on U.N. Bomb

Moscow, July 24 (AP)—Pravda said today the flyer who dropped a bomb over the United Nations headquarters at Lake Success Thursday, did so to "force the U. N. to take action to prevent a new war." The Communist Party newspaper gave a full account of the incident.
